SOURCE

1. A highly reliable source has stated recently that Mircea ELIAU acts as paymaster for Nicolae MAIAKA, well-known Romanian industrialist and political figure now in the United States, in the distribution of funds or scholarships to "meritorious Romanian students" in Paris. According to source, nearly all of these so-called students are former Iron Guardists, and ELIAU himself is a former Iron Guard officer and editor of "Pozitiva Vremii," the official organ of the Iron Guard.
2. In this connection, it is interesting to note that in an article appearing recently in the "Curierul Român," anti-government Romanian periodical published in France, General RADESCU is quoted as having promised Mircea ELIAU that he would arrange for several scholarships to be given to meritorious Romanian students in France. It is further reported that upon the general's return to France from New York, he informed ELIAU that scholarships of 6,000 francs per month each had been granted for twenty students, to be recommended by the "Association of Romanian Students in France," headed by Savin SOREA. (The fact that ELIAU had at his disposal twenty scholarships of 6,000 francs each has been confirmed by other sources.)
3. It would appear to be more than coincidence that RADESCU's reported fulfillment of his promise of funds or scholarships followed his visit to the United States; also, that MAIAKA may be using General RADESCU as a front man for his support of Iron Guardists.
